

Rediscover Your Sacred Solution© Monday Evenings March 8 – April 19, 2010 Santa Fe, NM

What is your purpose on this planet? How can you clarify, validate, and articulate how you want to contribute, in such a way that it manifests prosperity for you and provides value to those who are attracted to your Sacred Solution? Essence results from differentiating between what is truly necessary and what is superfluous. My experience is that when we don't commit, or we try to do too many things for too many people, we are operating from a place of lack (of focus) or fear. Take the time to really see who you are, love who you are, clarify what you have to offer, and commit to a bigger Vision of yourself and your contribution, services, or products on this planet. Attract the right people/ receive your desired results.

The workshop begins in a Zen-like atmosphere of not-knowing, a place of great openness where possibilities and potentialities are called into being. We then work to distill your ideas into their essential elements. You will have the time to live in the chrysalis, in liquid form, to play, to experiment, and finally to uncover your true essential nature. Our process guides you to a solution that will truly work, one that resonates for you, one that magnetizes and attracts what you are looking for. This workshop is only for those brave enough to admit that what they have been trying is not getting their desired results. This is an opportunity to re-think, re-feel and re-visit your true essence and your ultimate Vision in a small intimate group of fellow explorers (limited to 7).

Sacred Solutions© is an ongoing small group designed to help identify and match personal and market needs, as well as issues that have the most meaning to you, with your unique capabilities and resources. Our time together combines exploratory questions, intimate and challenging discussion, and tools for seeing new possibilities with meditation, movement, personal exercises, and time to reflect. Our mission is to identify your true essence and the Sacred Solution© you offer to our community. We invite you to make a commitment to truly reflect upon how you wish to invest your life in a structured and supportive small group environment.

Sacred Solutions© workshops are facilitated by Caryn Spain. Caryn is uniquely qualified to facilitate this transformative workshop. She is a master manifestor and combines the knowledge and experience of her 20 plus years helping business leaders find a greater Vision of themselves and their businesses with her experience on her own spiritual path addressing similar questions regarding her own life. Caryn will guide your explorations into what it is you truly embody and gently support you in making a commitment to your Vision.

Workshop Schedule: We will meet on Monday evenings from 6:30 to 9:30 starting March 8 and continuing to April 19. In addition to our structured times, please plan some time to for reflection, the completion of exercises, and decision-making outside of our group meetings.

Times are flexible based on the group's agreed upon needs and schedules.

Suggested Contribution: $500 or comparable trade~ no one committed to this conversation will be turned away based on resources.
